Nordstrom, President; Theora Wiseman, Secretary; Kay Nelson, Treasurer.

THE PRESIDENT'S FAREWELL

I have greatly enjoyed my term as president of the class of nineteen hundred and fifty six. I would like to thank my co-officers who are as follows: Beth Swanson, Vice President; Theora Wiseman, Secretary; Kay Nelson, Treasurer. Without the aid of the other officers our dreams of class accomplishments would not have come true.

I feel we must not forget the presiding officers of the past three years who were: Dennis Anderson, Freshman; Theora Wiseman, Sophomore and Junior.

In these four years our class has advanced considerably, both socially and financially.

Many of us have jokingly said that we can't wait until we graduate, but I am quite sure we will all admit that Manlius High has been a sound and basic educational foundation for our stairway of life. An whether our next step is that of further education or work, it is the first few steps that count.

In now speak for the entire class in saying our four years at Manlius have truly been four strong steps.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On August 29, 1952, twenty-nine green freshmen, seventeen girls and twelve boys, started up the steps toward graduation. After the first few weeks we became accustomed to the routine of high school classes.

Our first year we elected the following officers:

President--Dennis (Skip) Anderson
Vice-President--Patti Andersen
Secretary--Kay Nelson
Treasurer--Bill Chesney
Advisor--Fred Russel

Our first high light of the year--INITIATION, September 12. The boys looked very feminine carrying their dolls and dressed in negligee, night caps, and high heels. The girls looked very cute dressed in their dad's pajamas, one bedroom slipper, one hip boot, and with their hair in twenty pig tails. As we recall that day, we think of how funny we must have looked to the upper classmen.

At the beginning of the year, Marshall Kinsley joined our class, but before the year was over, we lost Shirley Partin, Shirley Benoodt, Orvin Webb, and Beth Swanson; leaving a total of twenty-five in our class.

We ended our first year feeling less "green" and much older.

After a summer of fun and hard work, we returned in the fall with twenty-six in our class, eleven boys and fifteen girls. We gained one new member, Linda Jaques. Later we lost Charles Boyce, due to illness.

Our officers for this year were:

President--Theora Wiseman
Vice-President--Rita Dell Cooksey
Secretary--Katherine Miller
Treasurer--George House
Advisor--Mrs. Small

We sold magazines at the beginning of the year and also ordered our class pins.

Our main event for the year was our Sophomore Dance on December 22, following the Manlius vs Mineral basketball game.

On March 19, we had a lot of fun having a St. Patrick's Day Party.

With a junior air of authority, we returned to school in the fall of '54 with twenty-four members; Janet Pyse having moved away during the summer. We now had fourteen girls and ten boys; later gaining Art Ghys for a total of twenty-six.

The officers for this year were:

President--Theora Wiseman
Vice-President--David Michlig
Secretary--Patti Andersen
Treasurer--Richard Van Bevern
Advisors--Miss Decker and Mr. Cliff

During the second semester, we gained three new members; Patricia Brigham, Joan Neidetcher, and Beth Swanson--but we also lost three members; George House, George Krug, and Art Ghys. This left us with twenty-five members in our class, eight boys and seventeen girls.

We all looked forward to getting our class rings which came in November. We decorated the football field for the Homecoming game on October 1.

We again took an active part in the magazine campaign. Some of our projects through-out the year were the coke machine, Bar-B-Q dinner, and hobo day. Outstanding was the Junior Dance on December 3, following the Manlius vs Sheffield game.

On May 6 and 7, we presented the Junior Class Play, "ONLY AN ORPHAN GIRL". The play was well attended and proved to be quite a success.

Another great scene was the Jr. and Sr. Banquet and Prom on May 14. Our theme was "U.S.S. Memories". Although we worked hard, we enjoyed it.

On August 29, we serious seniors walked up the steps and in the door to finish our high school career. There were twenty-six members since Marilyn Peterson joined us, eighteen girls and eight boys.

Officers chosen were:

President--Ronald Nordstrom
Vice-President--Beth Swanson
Secretary--Theora Wiseman
Treasurer--Kay Nelson
Advisors--Miss Peters and Mr. Vroman

Many alumni returned for our Homecoming Dance on October 15, following the Manlius vs Sheffield game. The theme for the dance was "AUTUMN LEAVES".

To raise money for our senior trip, we again participated in the magazine campaign, sold necklaces, had dinners at noon, and had a Glenn Miller record dance.

Again this year, our play, "TWELVE ANGRY MEN", was held two nights--November 18 and 19. It proved very successful. The senior class was in charge of the concession stand at the football games and part of the basketball games at New Bedford.

In January Elaine Hartz was chosen as the DAR Award Winner.

Two big projects accomplished this year were the publishing of our school paper, "THE DEVIL'S TALE", and the MIRROR, our annual.

A May evening was the scene of our final prom. Our King and Queen reigned in pomp splendor through a long night. The juniors worked hard to make it a highly successful evening for one and all.

Good things must come to an end. Sooooo, graduation finally arrived with all the homework, and other memories now a part of the past.

Our final school activity which we were all highly anticipating was our trip to New York City. This we felt was a wonderful way to bring to a close our four memorable years at Manlius High School.

THE CASE OF THE MISSING PARTNER

As the scene opens in 1976, we hear the man sitting under a city light in the city police station, as he says, "This is the city, I'm a city cop." DUM DA DUM DAAAA!!!!!! "My name - Flatfoot Nordstrom. My job - finding my partner, Friday, who has been missing since Wednesday. Maybe some of my old classmates can help me find him. All I want is the facts."

In order to get a clue, I started my investigation with the famous saxophone duet, The Andersen Twins, who just completed an engagement at the Chez Paree in Chicago. They sent me on the trail of the head waiter at that club who is none other than "Skip" Anderson. I asked him a few questions. The only reply I could get was, "Who me? I don't know notin'." The only lead he could give me was to go to the Tribune Tower, where I found an office door marked - Advice to the Lovelorn, Editor, Beverly Bruhn, Girl Reporter. I told her, "I just want the facts, Mam." I left her office not with so much knowledge of where Friday was, but at least I got some free advice in regard to any lonely hearts.

I picked up the investigation with Rita Dell Cooksey, well-known for her work as director of juvenile delinquency - school. I remembered she was going to be a teacher, but didn't figure it would be that sort of teaching. She gave me my first real "brake" - when I got back to the squad car, I discovered it was mine.

11:25 a.m. - time for lunch. I stopped at a little restaurant in the neighborhood - Richie's. It was one of a chain of restaurants run by a Texas oil tycoon, Richard DeBrock, another of the class of '56. Mr. DeBrock was not available for questioning, as he was in Texas watching another gusher come in.

11:45 a.m. - Over a piece of apple pie, I happened to spy something walking in a fur coat, with dark glasses, being led by a leash attached to a poodle. It was none other than the script writer for MAD comics, Sophie Star-sand, alias Marlene Fordham. The only information she could give me was that comic books may jump to 30¢.

11:46 a.m. - I rushed to the nearest corner newstand to get a copy of MAD Comics before the prices changed. Who should be running the stand? None other than Elaine Hartz, who, being a loyal citizen, gave me a hot tip by telling me to check with the "Who Am I" panel show over COW-TV.

8:00 p.m. - After getting picked up for speeding, I finally made my way to the studio and made special arrangements to appear for that evening. I arrived just as Richard Van Bevern was singing the commercial which put the program on the air. The first guest was a girl that wasn't sure who she was ever since she fell from her horse while riding in the English Steeplechase. After much deliberation, the panel informed her that she was Marilyn Peterson, world famous horse jockey. Overjoyed at discovering her identity, Marilyn cried "Hi Ho Silver!", and galloped from the stage.

8:10 p.m. - I received the signal that I was next on stage. As I came on the stage, I was greeted by the moderator, Mr. David Michlig, well-known Broadway columnist. He introduced me to the first member of the panel who was Miss Snodgrass, currently starring in a radio program, "Just Plain Bill". The next panelist was a gentleman whose name was Thorp, known to all for his Pulitzer Prize winning book, THE VIOLET TATTOO. The next two panelists were Miss Vetter and Miss Neidetcher, two well-known nurses - one specializes in right eye and ear and the other, left eye and ear.

The final member of the panel was Mr. Kinsley, world champion chess player. I took my seat alongside the moderator and gave them my problem: "Who is my man Friday? Where is he and why isn't he working?" This wide awake panel informed me that my man Friday was none other than Big Bill Chesney - DUM DA DUM DUM !!!

The second part of the question stumped the experts. I told them I was just after the facts, so they sent me to the Polo Grounds in New York where the All-Star, All-Girl, eight-man (woman) football team was playing the Green Bay Packers in an exhibition football game. I got there just as the announcer was giving the line-up: Left end, Beth Swanson; left guard, Beverly Truedson; center, Linda Jaques; right guard, Theora Wiseman; right end and captain of the team, Pat Polson; left half, Kay Nelson; right half, Katherine Miller; quarterback, Edith Mueller.

Just as the announcer finished, I glanced at the bench and happened to see my man Friday, Big Bill Chesney, holding a water bucket. I stormed over, told him I wanted the facts as to why he wasn't working today; his answer, "I'm your man Friday, but today is Thursday." This ended Case Number 1956

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1955, thirty-three jolly juniors entered Manlius High School looking forward to being upper classmen at last. The following officers were elected:

President	Janice Johnson
Vice Pres.	Norman Berry
Advisors	Mrs. Block and Miss Schmidt
Secretary	Larry Lubbs
Treasurer	Glenda Rogers

During the year, we lost Frances Foy and gained Karen Peterson from Tiskilwa.

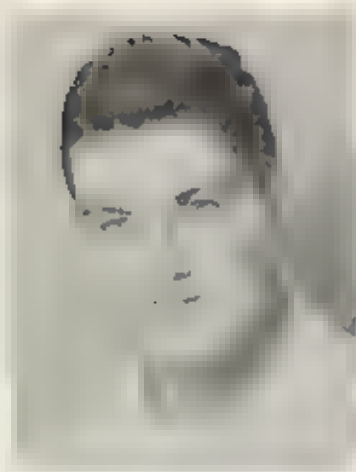

We were in charge of the coke machine and also the milk machine which went into effect for the first time this year. On October 26, we held a chili dinner for the pupils and faculty. At the Tiskilwa - Manlius basketball game on December 16, a successful turkey-raffle was held. Following the game, an enjoyable evening was had at our dance.

Our spring events, the Junior Play on May 4 and 5, and the Jr.-Sr. Prom on May 12, proved to be a tremendous success.

A good percentage of the students participated in sports, music, and the various organizations.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

On August 29, 1955, a group of twenty-eight boys and girls entered M.H.S. for their sophomore year. Darla Durham moved to Tiskilwa in March, thus leaving us with twenty-seven.

During the year we were busy with many activities including two record dances, a bake sale, magazine campaign, chili dinner, selling belts, and raffling off the dog that we won for our magazine sales.

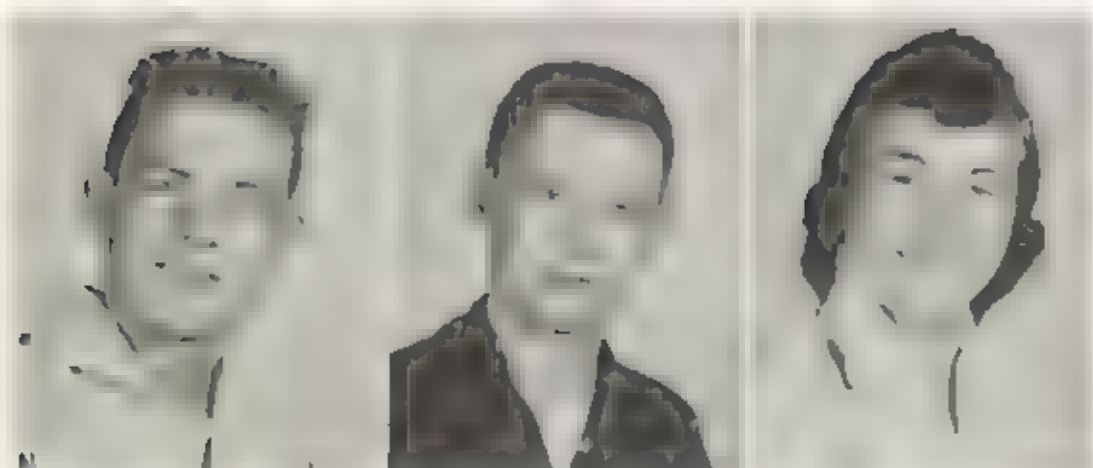

We enjoyed three class parties this year. One of which was given by Mr. Cliff, our class sponsor, another by Jim Chesney, and a farewell party for Darla.

This year we made $125.30 profit on our magazine sales. Our classmate, Jeanne Hanson, received a watch for selling the most magazines.

Next year, as juniors, we are all looking forward to receiving our class rings.

Vice President:	Larry Hansen
Treasurer:	Kathryn Foy
Secretary:	Jerene Christensen
Advisor:	Mr. McKie

At the beginning of the second semester, Karla Krebs moved to Walnut and Beverly Plotner joined us from St. Mary's School in Wisconsin. Shortly thereafter, Kathryn Foy left and Beverly Kvamme joined us from Buda. Beverly Plotner took over the Treasurer's job. We had a Sock-Hop, sold Red Devil stickers and sold magazines to raise money.

At one of the first meetings of the Manlius F.H.A. Chapter, we installed our new officers for the year.

Mrs. Ted Wiseman has served as our Chapter Mother quite faithfully. We could not have operated this year without her.

Our sponsor is Mrs. Hugo Block. She has worked hard and contributed many ideas to make our year a happy and successful one.

The theme for the year was "Jeans to Queens."

We started the year in September with the informal initiation of Freshmen by having them wear aprons and tape measures around their waists.

In October we sponsored a Hobo Day. All of the girls helped by working for someone and then donating the money to our treasury.

In November, we celebrated F.H.A. Week by one day wearing macaroni necklaces; red and white colors; dressing up one day; and wearing masks. That Sunday everyone went to church.

At Christmas time each girl brought two or three cards which we gave to the Old Folk Home.

"The Crystal Ball" was the theme for the F.H.A. Prom in January. Pink, white, and silver were our colors. In the center a large wire ball with smaller tissue balls was hung. Pink, white, and silver balls hung from a pink and white ceiling. The orchestra was seated in an archway. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Queen Elaine Hartz and of presenting First Attendant, Janice Johnson, Second Attendants, Beth Swanson and Rita Dell Cooksey with bows.

In April the girls dated their Dads for an evening of fun. Games and contests were enjoyed by them in the gym.

The Mother-Daughter Tea was held in the school gym. The main event of the evening was the style show put on by the girls who are taking home-making. The closing ceremony was the formal installation of next year's officers.

CONCERT BAND

The Concert Band under the direction of Mr. Russel Vroman engaged in a number of activities this year which gave the Band members a chance to participate in various phases of music. To open the season, the band presented a March Concert in connection with an instrumental display. In December, the band presented their annual Christmas Concert. In the Spring they presented a "Pop" Concert as a school assembly. The Concert Band's next appearance was in connection with the One-Act Play Contest at which time they provided a few selections between plays. The final appearance of the Concert Band, and one of the high-lights, was the presentation of the Spring Concert.

SENIOR PLAY

TWELVE ANGRY PEOPLE

Twelve people must act as one to determine the guilt or innocence of a young man. The phrase, "beyond a reasonable doubt", is the crux of their decision. What begins as "an open and shut case", turns into an exciting play of conflicting testimony, long arguments, mounting suspense, and finally a new murder threat. Tempers grow short and the jurors become TWELVE ANGRY PEOPLE.

One truth-seeking man, in the face of total opposition, believes in the defendant's innocence and drives relentlessly to convey an exciting, thought-provoking plan to a powerful climax.

"THE HASTY HEART"

The action of "The Hasty Heart" is set in an Army hospital in Burma, but it is less a war play than one about a group of human beings who just happened to meet because of the war. It is heartwarming, poignant, richly comic, and profoundly moving in its story of a bitter, lonely Scottish sergeant with only a few weeks to live who has closed his heart to friendship and love. . . . and it is the story of how his fellow-patients finally win his friendship and a hospital nurse wins his love. The laughter and tears, the unqualified, enthusiastic praise were proof that our production of "The Hasty Heart" was the finest play yet seen in Manlius.

ONE-ACT PLAY "AIRA DA CAPO"

It is described by one writer as a "brief but profound satire of war and war-makers." It is, indeed, a satire, in fact, a brilliant one. However, I believe that it is more universal than a study of war. It is a play of symbolism, in which each listener can find his own set of values. It contracts the value of tragedy and comedy; it studies the forces of evil which lead to tragedy and self-destruction. The corruption of basic values of good which leads to tragedy of self-compromise and destruction is treated in this play in terms of a simple game between shepherds. However, in this very simplicity is the parallel with the life situation...from the simplest of beginnings can develop the forces which will destroy all we cherish. If we consider this as "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" we can see the parallel with the causes of war.

In the basic lesson of the play we can find the warnings and admonitions to guard these simplest and closest liberties, else we will lose other more valuable ones.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The 1955-56 annual Jr.-Sr. Prom was held Saturday night, May 19, starting at the high school. The gym was decorated differently than any previous year. "South of the Border" was the theme. As you first walked into the gym, you found yourself on the porch of an adobe house, which contained card tables and chairs, and the el cantino or punch table. The false ceiling of blue and white was bordered by crepe paper streams of brown, orange, yellow, and tan, to carry out the Mexican theme. The orchestra sat in a Mexican cart pulled by a donkey. In one corner was a bird-bath. Cacti were placed in various places all over the gym. Maracas were hung from the ceiling and the walls.

The banquet was prepared by the Junior's mothers and served by the Sophomores. They were dressed in colorful Mexican costumes. Rev. Cook gave the invocation. A program was led by the master of ceremonies-Charles Hewitt. Janice Johnson gave the Welcome and Ronald Nordstrom gave the response. The class history was read by Marlene Fordham and Beth Swanson read the class prophecy. The boy's chorus gave a musical number. Rev. Cook then gave the benediction.

Dancing followed to the music of Doc Hunt and his orchestra.

After the dance, everyone enjoyed a smorgasbord sponsored by Kraft. At 2:00 a.m. many attended the movie at the Walnut theater. They then returned to Manlius and had a very nice breakfast which was served by the Manlius - New Bedford fire departments.
